ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP, VOTING, QUORUM, PROXIES

1. Membership. Any person on becoming an Owner of a fee or undivided interest in any Lot shall automatically become a Member of this Association and be subject to these By-Laws, provided, however, that any person or entity holding an interest in any such Lot merely as security for the performance of any obligation, shall not be a Member. Such membership shall terminate without any formal Association action whenever such person ceases to own a Lot, but such termination shall not relieve or release any such former Owner from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with the Subdivision during the period of such ownership and membership in the Association, or impair any rights or remedies which the Board of Directors of the Association or others may have against such former Owner and Member arising out of or in any way connected with such ownership and membership and the Covenants and obligations incident thereto. No certificates of stock shall be issued by the Association, but the Board of Directors may, if it so elects, issue one membership certificate to the Owner(s) of a Lot, such membership certificate shall be surrendered to the Association's Secretary whenever ownership of the Lot designated thereon shall terminate.
2. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the Members shall occur whenever the Board of Directors decides to set it.
3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called at any time by the President, by the Board of Directors, or upon written request of the Members who are entitled to vote one-fourth (1/4) of all of the votes the Association.
4. Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of the Members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the Secretary or person authorized to call the meeting, by mailing a copy of such notice, postage prepaid, not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before such meeting to each Member entitled to vote, addressed to the Member's address last appearing on the books of the Association for the purpose of notice. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting. the purpose of the meeting.

Quorum. The presence of the meeting of Members entitled to cast, in person or through written proxies, one-tenth (1/10) of the votes of the membership shall constitute a quorum for any action except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the Covenants, or these By-Laws. If the required quorum is not forthcoming at any meeting, another meeting may be called and the required quorum at any such subsequent meeting shall be one-half (1/2) of the required quorum at the preceding meeting, provided that such reduced quorum requirement shall not be applicable to any such subsequent meeting held more than sixty (60) days following the preceding meeting.

5. Proxies. At all meetings of Members each Member may vote in person or by written proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the Secretary. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall automatically cease upon conveyance by the Member of his Lot. No form of proxy may be used other than the official form issued by the Association, and photocopied duplications thereof, shall be valid.
6. List of Lot Owners. Prior to the mailing of notice of meetings, as of a date fixed by the Board of Directors a Complete list of the Lot Owners, entitled to vote at said meeting, arranged alphabetically, with the residence of each (lot number, address of lot and mailing address) and the number of votes held by each, shall be prepared by the Officer or agent in charge of the membership records. Such list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office at the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any Member, at any time during usual business hours.

ARTICLE IV.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: SELECTION: TERM OF OFFICE

1. Number. The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a Board of five (5) Directors, who need not be Members of the Association.
2. Term of Office. At the first annual meeting the Members shall elect one Director for a term of one year, two Directors for a term of two years, and two Directors for a term of three years: and at each annual meeting thereafter the Members shall elect Directors for the resulting vacancies resulting from the end of the above stated terms, for a term of three years.
3. Removal. Any Director may be removed from the Board with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Members of the Association. In the event of death, resignation or removal of a Director, his successor shall be selected by the remaining Members of the Board and shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.
4. Compensation. No Director shall receive compensation for any service he may render to the Association as a Director. However, any Director may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties upon approval of the Board of Directors.
5. Action Taken Without a Meeting. The Directors shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the written approval of all the Directors. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Directors.

ARTICLE V. NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Nomination. Nominations may be made from the floor at the annual meeting.

Election. Election to the Board of Directors shall be by show of hands, or secret written ballot, as may be determined by the chairperson of the meeting. At such election, the Members or their written proxies may cast, with respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation of the Association and the Covenants. The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

ARTICLE VI. MEETING OF DIRECTORS

1. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board, after not less than six (6) days' notice to each Director and Member.
2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by the President of the Association, or by any two Directors, after not less than three (3) days' notice to each Director and Member.
3. Notice. Notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given by written notice delivered personally or sent by mail or e-mail or fax to each Director at their address as shown by the records of the Association. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. In order to deliver notice by fax the receiving Director must first have recorded in writing a fax number accompanying the Director's address of record.
4. Quorum. A majority of the number of Sitting Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. "Sitting Directors" shall be defined as all Directors currently serving the Association less the number of Directors who have died, resigned in writing or have been removed by vote as defined in Article IV, Section 3 above. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board. No Director present by proxy may be counted toward a quorum.

ARTICLE VII. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. Powers. The Board of Directors shall have power to:

- a) Adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Facilities, and the personal conduct of the Members and their guests thereon, and to establish penalties for the infraction thereof;
- b) Establish, adopt, and publish guidelines for development, setting out desired standards of exposed construction materials, exterior structure design, landscaping, parking criteria and site improvements. These Guidelines and amendments or revisions thereto shall be used by the Architectural Control Committee in governing the development and continued use or reuse of any Lot and improvements thereof; provided, however, such guidelines shall not conflict with the Covenants;
- c) Suspend the voting rights and right to use the recreational facilities of a Member during any period in which such Member shall be in default in the payment of any Assessment levied by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for the infraction of published rules and regulations;
- d) Exercise for the Association all powers, duties, and authority vested in or delegated to the Association and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of these "By-Laws", the Articles of Incorporation, or the Covenants;
- e) Declare the office of a Member of the Board of Directors to be vacant in the event such Member shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Directors;
- f) Employ a Manager, independent contractors, or such other employees as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties;
- g) Enforce all of the terms and provisions of the Covenants against property Owners;
- h) Enter into such contracts, leases, and agreements as may be necessary to enforce, execute or accomplish the temls of the Covenants; and
- i) Suspend the voting rights and the right to use any of the Common Facilities of the Association during any period in which such Member shall be in default in the payment of any sums owed to the Association;
- j) Suspend vehicular access to the Common Facilities by any Member who violates traffic rules or laws on more than two occasions. in any twelve (12) month period.

2. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to:

- a) Cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a statement thereof to the Members at the annual meeting of the Members, or at any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by one-fourth (1/4) of the entire membership vote;

- b) Supervise all Officers, Agents, and employees of the Association, and to see that their duties are properly performed;
 - 1) Fix the amount of the quarterly assessment against each Lot at least thirty (30) days in advance of the Annual meeting;
 - 2) Send written notice of each assessment to every Owner subject thereto at least thirty (30) days in advance of the Annual Meeting; and
 - 3) Take such necessary actions at law required to collect any delinquent payment of assessments, to include effecting liens against the lands within the Iron Horse Canyon Development owned by the delinquent parties. At the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, where liens are deemed extensively delinquent, foreclosure actions shall be initiated.
- c) Issue, or cause an appropriate Officer to issue, upon demand by any person, a certificate setting forth whether or not any assessment has been paid. A reasonable charge may be made by the Board for the issuance of these certificates. If a certificate states an assessment has been paid, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such payment;
- d) Procure and maintain adequate liability and hazard insurance on property owned by and activities of the Association;
- e) Procure and maintain adequate errors and omissions insurance to protect Members of the Board of Directors from all official actions taken excepting such action that is deemed criminal in a court of law;
- f) Cause all Officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as it may deem appropriate; and
- g) Cause the Common Facilities to be maintained.

ARTICLE VIII.

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

1. Enumeration of Offices. The Officers of this Association shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer who shall at all times be Members of the Board of Directors, and such other Offices as the Board may, from time to time, by resolution create.
2. Election of Officers. The election of Officers shall take place at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the Members.

3. Term. The Officers of this Association shall be elected annually by the Board and each shall hold office for one (1) year unless they shall sooner resign, or shall be removed, or otherwise be disqualified to serve.
4. Special Appointment. The Board may elect such other Officers as the affairs of the Association may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as the Board may, from time to time, determine.
5. Resignation and Removal. Any Officer may be removed from office with or without cause by the Board. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board, the President or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified herein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
6. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office may be filled by appointment by the Board. The officer appointed to such vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term of the Officer being replaced.
7. Multiple Offices. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person. No person shall simultaneously hold more than one of any of the other offices except in the case of special offices created pursuant to Section 4 of this Article
8. Duties. The duties of the Offices are as follows:

President

- a) The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors; shall see that orders and resolutions of the Board are carried out; shall sign all leases, mortgages, deeds, contracts, and other written instruments and shall co-sign all checks and promissory notes.

Vice President

- b) The Vice President shall act in the place and stead of the President in the event of his absence, inability or refusal to act, and shall exercise and discharge such other duties as may be required of the Vice President by the Board.

Secretary

- c) The Secretary shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all meetings and proceedings of the Board and of the Members; keep the corporate seal of the Association, if any, and affix it on all papers requiring said seal; serve notice of meetings of the Board and of the Members; keep appropriate current records showing the Members of the Association together with their addresses, and shall perform such other duties as required by the Board.

The position of Secretary and that of Treasurer may be held by one individual simultaneously.

Treasurer

- d) The Treasurer shall receive and deposit in appropriate bank accounts all monies of the Association and shall disburse such funds as directed by resolution of the Board of Directors; shall sign Promissory Notes of the Association; shall retain two (2) bonded Members and/or employees of the Association with authorization to individually sign checks; keep proper books to be reviewed by an independent public accountant at the completion of each fiscal year; and shall prepare an annual budget and a suitably comprehensive financial report to be presented to the membership at its regular annual meeting, and deliver a copy of each to the Members. The position of Treasurer and that of Secretary may be held by one individual simultaneously.

ARTICLE IX. COMMITTEES

1. Architectural Control Committee. If and when the Association is vested with the power and authority to appoint and remove Members of the Architectural Control Committee, hereinafter called "Committee", pursuant to the Covenants, the Board of Directors shall appoint an Architectural Control Committee, as provided in the Covenants. The Architectural Control Committee regardless of by whom appointed, shall prepare and adopt a written statement setting forth development and building standards and procedures for the implementation and enforcement of same, said statement to be called Architectural Design Guidelines: shall perform such functions as directed by the Covenants, and shall advise the Board on all matters pertaining to the maintenance, use, repair or improvements to the Properties. The Architectural Control Committee may have delegated to it, by the Board, such powers and duties as are necessary to enforce the Covenants. The actions of the Committee shall not conflict with the Covenants.
2. Other Committees. The Board shall appoint other committees as deemed appropriate to carry out its purpose and delegate to said committees such powers and duties required to execute and enforce the committee's responsibilities.

ARTICLE X. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND MANAGERS

The Association shall indemnify every Director, Manager or Officer, his heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors, and assigns against all loss, costs and expense, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a Director, Manager, or Officer of the Association, except for matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of a settlement, indemnification shall be provided only in connection with such matters covered by the settlement as to which the Association is advised by counsel that the person to be indemnified has not been guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duty as such Director, Manager or Officer in relation to the matter involved. The foregoing rights shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such Director, Manager, or Officer may be entitled. All liability, loss, damage, cost and expense incurred or suffered by the Association by reason of, or arising out of or in connection with the foregoing indemnification provisions shall be treated and handled by the Association as Common Expenses; provided, however, that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to obligate the Association to indemnify any Member or Owner of a Lot, who is or has been a Director, Manager, or Officer of the Association, with respect to any duties or obligations assumed or liabilities incurred by him under and by virtue of the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions related to the Properties, as a member or Owner of a Lot covered thereby. The Association may obtain such insurance as the Board of Directors may deem advisable to cover the foregoing described matters.

ARTICLE XI. BOOKS AND RECORDS

The books, records, and papers of the Association shall at all times, during reasonable business hours, be subject to inspection by any Member. The Covenants, the Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws of the Association and current Operational and Development Guidelines shall be available for inspection by any Member at the principal office of the Association, or its agent, where copies may be purchased at reasonable cost.

ARTICLE XII. CONTRACTS, CHECKS, DEPOSITS AND FUNDS

1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any Officer or Officers agent or agents of the Corporation in addition to the Officers so authorized by these By-laws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of an on behalf of the Corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.
2. Checks, Drafts, etc. All checks, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation, shall be signed by such Officer or Officers, agent or agents of the Corporation and in such manner as shall, from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. In the absence of such determination by the Board of Directions, such instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer and countersigned by the President or a Vice President of the Corporation.
3. Deposits. All funds of the Corporation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

4. Gifts. The Board of Directors may accept on behalf of the Corporation any contribution, gift, bequest or devise for the general purposes of or for any special purpose of the corporation.

ARTICLE XIII. CERTIFICATES OF MEMBERSHIP

The Board of Directors may provide for the issuance of certificates evidencing membership in the Corporation, which shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board. Such certificates shall be signed by the President or Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary and shall be sealed with the seal of the Corporation. All Certificates evidencing membership shall be consecutively numbered. The name and address of each member, the date of issuance of the certificate and a statement that such certificates are shares in the Common Facilities but without par value shall be entered on the records of the Corporation. If any certificate shall become lost, mutilated or destroyed, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors may determine. Transfer of membership certificates shall be made only on the books of the Association by the holder of record thereof or by his legal representative who shall furnish proper evidence of authority to transfer, or by his attorney thereunto authorized by powers of attorney duly executed and filed with the Secretary of the Association and then only upon the surrender for cancellation of the certificate representing such membership in the Association, provided, however, in the event the Owner sells land and fails to transfer the membership certificate to the vendee, then the secretary shall at such time as the deed conveying the land to the vendee is recorded in Bexar County, Texas, transfer the membership on the books of the Association without any act of the holder of record. The person in whose name the membership certificate stands on the books of the Association shall be deemed a Member for all purposes as regards the Association.

ARTICLE XIV. AMENDMENTS

1. These By-laws may be amended at a regular or special meeting of the Members by a vote of a majority of all votes of the Association.
2. In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these By-laws, the Articles shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Covenants and these By-laws, the Covenants shall control.

ARTICLE XV. DISSOLUTION

1. Manner of Dissolution. The Corporation may be dissolved only with the assent given in writing and signed by two-thirds (2/3) of the Members. Written notice of a proposal to dissolve, setting forth reasons therefor and the disposition to be made of the assets and/or the methods available to satisfy all outstanding indebtedness and obligations, shall be given to every Member at least ninety (90) day in advance of any meeting at which any such action may be taken. Said ninety (90) day notice shall be in addition to the notice required by Article III, Section 4 hereof.

2. Distribution of Assets. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the assets both real and personal of the Corporation shall be applied and distributed in accordance with the provisions of Article 1396-6.02 of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE XVI. OBJECTIVE AND PURPOSE

1. The primary purpose of this non-profit Association is to maintain and administer the Common Facilities and to collect and disburse the assessments and charges herein created, with regard to the residential properties within the Iron Horse Canyon Development, and such additions thereto as may hereafter be brought within the jurisdiction of the Association subject to the provisions of the Declarations of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, including amendments or supplements thereto, which may now exist or hereafter be placed on such property.
2. All present or future Owners, tenants, future tenants, or any other person that might use the Common Facilities in any manner, are subject to the regulations set forth in these By-laws. The mere acquisition or rental of any Lot or the mere act of occupancy of any Lot will signify that these By-laws and the Covenants are accepted, ratified, and will be complied with.

ARTICLE XVII. CORPORATE SEAL

The Association shall have a seal in circular form having within its circumference the words; the IRON HORSE CANYON DEVELOPMENT and a star with the word "Association" in the center.

ARTICLE XVIII. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December of every year.
2. Managing Agent. The current Managing Agent shall be Diamond Association Management & Consulting, whose address is 14603 Huebner Road, Building 40, San Antonio, Texas 78230, and the duties of which shall be to perform or cause to be performed all acts and responsibilities of the Board of Directors which may by law and these By-laws be delegated.

The foregoing restatement of the By-Laws was adopted by the Board of Directors of Iron Horse Canyon Homeowners Association, Inc., pursuant to the authority in Section 22.102(c), Texas Business Organizations Code, as reflected by the signatures below of the President and Secretary of Iron Horse Canyon Homeowners Association, Inc.
